

Meet our Teachers

Darryl Bennet is an ACBL certified teacher and is certified to teach Learn Bridge in a Day.

Mary Cleaton is an ACBL certified teacher by hobby and teacher by profession in FCPS. I have taught Beginning, Defense and Commonly Used Conventions several times over the last five years. Many private lessons were also offered. I plan to return to teaching at the Bridge Club when I am less encumbered as a substitute. Love to hate the game!
Really love teaching game and seeing players learn!

Tom Stanwix-Hay teaches beginning and play of the hand through the Osher Life Long Learning Institute (OLLI) at UK. To participate you must join OLLI and register for the class. For information on how to become a member How to register for OLLI. Tom uses the ACBL bridge in the 21 Century Series for the course.

Robert Kortzen became an ACBL Accredited teacher in 2011. He has taught the four courses in the ACBL series; Bidding, Defense, Play of the hand, and Commonly used Conventions. He also teaches 2/1 system, and topics on bidding. Bob loves to share his favorite game with others and help them to succeed. He is a Diamond Life Master and Certified Director. He offers small group classes and private playing lessons. He can be contacted at rkortzen@yahoo.com.
